- 6.1 The Training has an intensive schedule and curriculum that is physically, mentally, and emotionally demanding. By participating, the Student declares that he/she is healthy on a medical and mental-health level and is ready to fully participate in the demands of the program of the Training.
- 6.2 By participating in the Training, the Student declares that he/she is aware that it is his/ her own responsibility to take care of his/her own health and well being during such training at all times.

7 Code of Conduct

- 7.1 Students shall adhere to Yagoy's code of conduct at all times:
 - Come to the yoga class clean.
 - The use of (unscented) deodorant is highly appreciated. Because of some Student's sensitivities or allergies, please refrain from wearing any perfume, aromatherapy or other scents.
 - Wear clean, comfortable clothing during the yoga class.
 - It is advised not to eat later than 2 hours prior to a yoga class. In any case, do not practice yoga on a full stomach.
 - No shoes in the yoga studio, and no glass in the rooms.
 - Phones should be turned off/put on flight mode during the Teacher Training Weekend.
 - Yagoy provides yoga mats for use during the yoga classes. The yoga mat should be cleaned and put away by the Student who has used it.
 - In order to provide optimum (inner) peace, all Students are requested to refrain from talking in the yoga studio and to keep a low voice in the other spaces.
 - The (physical) integrity of the Students shall be respected at all times.
 - Arrive at least 15 minutes early and no later than 15 minutes after start of class. If the student arrives late (over 15 minutes) more than 2 times during the course of the Teacher Training, the Student will not be counted for that portion of the day's attendance.
- 7.2 The Student must be able to support the group learning process. The Student may be requested to leave the Training, if it is determined by the Teachers that his/her participation would in any way compromise a safe and cohesive learning environment or are in conflict with the Yoga Alliance Ethical guidelines.
<https://www.yogaalliance.org/AboutYA/OurPolicies/CodeofConduct>
- 7.3 Yagoy reserves the right, at its discretion, to deny Students entrance to Yagoy and terminate their participation in the Training, as the case may be, who do not adhere to the code of conduct as set forth in article 7.1 and 7.2, or do otherwise disturb the peace, without reimbursing any already paid Tuition.

- 8.1 Yagoy shall not be liable for any injury, loss or damages in connection with, or resulting from, participation in the Training.
- 8.2 The Student will never engage Yagoy, the Teachers, or any of the supporting staff, in legal proceedings relating to possible damages in whatever form, that may be the result of participation in the Training.
- 8.3 Yagoy only works with qualified yoga teachers and will always offer yoga classes of the highest quality, nonetheless, there is always a risk of injury involved when taking a yoga class. By participating in the Training, as the case may be, the Student accepts such risk of injury. Yagoy offers the following guidelines to diminish the risk of injury:
 - Consult with a physician when you are not sure you are completely healthy, or if you are pregnant, before starting to take yoga classes.
 - If you have an injury, or other physical issue, inform the yoga teacher thereof before you start your yoga class.

- Listen to and follow the instructions of the yoga teacher.
- Be conservative when exercising yoga and listen to your physical limitations.
- Don't do any exercises that are painful.
- Ask questions when you do not understand an exercise.

9 Copyright

- 9.1 All Yagoy materials are under copyright protection of Yagoy and cannot be reproduced by the Student without permission of the author. Failure to comply may result in legal action. This includes both the course layout, other shared documents and the student manual.

10 Personal data

- 10.1 Yagoy collects personal data of the Students in order to keep a file of its members and for the exercising of payment orders. Yagoy shall be careful while collecting these data and will always comply with the applicable Data Protection act (Wet Bescherming Persoonsgegevens).
- 10.2 Yagoy will also use the personal data as mentioned in clause 10.1 to keep the Students informed about Yagoy's activities, and possible changes in, e.g., the class schedule. If the Student does not want to receive any communication from Yagoy, he can opt-out by sending e-mail to: info@yagoy.nl. The Student is informed that in such a case he or she may not be able to make use of all Yagoy's services and products.
- 10.3 Without prior written consent, Yagoy will never transfer any personal data of the Students to a third party.
- 10.4 All details that students share with Yagoy, not only personal data but also the private and health issues, are honoured in its private nature and are handled with highest care and protection of this information.

11 Applicable law, Dispute Resolution, Prevailing language

- 11.1 Dutch law applies exclusively to the conditions.
- 11.2 In case of complaints, please send an e-mail to trainings@yagoy.nl. In case we can not solve the issue together, the following certified mediation organization can be addressed to assess and mediate on the issue: <https://www.gecertificeerdemediators.nl/contact/>. Their final decision is binding and will be adhered to by both parties. The costs for this mediation will be equally shared by both parties.
- 11.3 After sharing your complaint with us through email, you will receive an answer by email within 10 working days. The complaint will be handled and solved within a maximum of 60 days from first contact, if within 60 days the issue is not solved, another 60 day extension to solve the issue applies. In case resolving and the processing the complaint takes longer than the initial 60 days, the student will be notified before the end of the 60 days on the status, and a new estimate will be given on why it is taking longer and a new estimate of date of finalizing the complaint will be provided.
- 11.4 The complaint will be handled with care and protection of privacy of the complaining party. Also, the complaint will be archived and stays retrievable for a period of 1 year from the first contact.
- 11.5 The program may primarily be given in English. The Student has the choice to write their papers and exams in Dutch.

I have read and understood the General Terms and Conditions and agree to them.
